

Contact Database using CoreData and UITableView

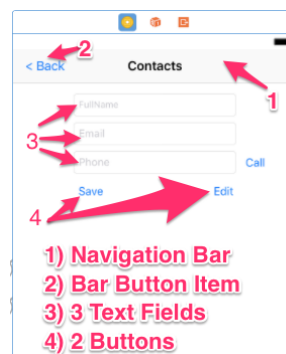

- 1) Create a new project > app > & make sure Use CoreData is checked, Storyboard, Swift
- 2) Name Project: MyContacts > Next > Save to Desktop

- 3) Uncheck ALL but “Portrait Orientation” under Device Orientation
- 4) Click on CoreData Model “MyContacts.xcdatamodeld”
 - a. Click Add Entity + and rename Entity to Contact
 - b. Click + Attributes and add below (Must start with lowercase)
 - i. email Type:STRING
 - ii. fullname Type:STRING
 - iii. phone Type: STRING

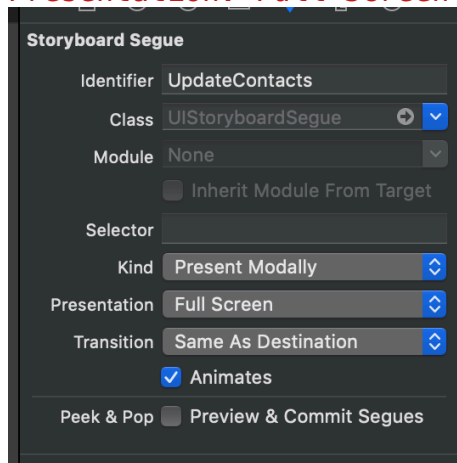

- 5) Place objects on ViewController
 - a. Click on storyboard file
 - b. Place objects on ViewController (see photo)
 - c. Text Fields Width 193
 - d. Buttons width 85
 - e. btnSave (Alignment Leading)
 - f. btnEdit (Alignment Trailing)

- 6) Bind Objects to code
 - a. Outlets
 - i. fullname
 - ii. email
 - iii. phone
 - iv. btnSave
 - v. btnEdit
 - b. Actions
 - i. btnSave
 - ii. btnEdit

- iii. btnBack
 - c. Delegates from View Controller (Control + Drag to ViewController)
 - i. fullname
 - ii. email
 - iii. phone
- 7) Use Placeholder property of textfields to add FullName, Email, Phone
- 8) Add TableViewController
 - a. Select UITableViewController > Editor > Embed In > Navigation Controller
 - b. Select Navigation Controller > Attributes Inspector
 - i. Title: My Contacts
 - ii. Check (Is initial View Controller)
 - c. Add Bar Button Item
 - i. Style: Bordered
 - ii. Identifier: Add
 - iii. CNTRL + Drag to View Controller > Present Modally & Presentation: Full Screen
 - d. Select Table View Cell
 - i. Style: Right Detail
 - ii. Identifier: Cell
 - iii. CNTRL + Drag Table View Cell to View Controller > Present Modally
 - iv. Click  > Storyboard Segue Identifier: UpdateContacts
 - v. Presentation: Full Screen

- vi.
 - e. Select Navigation Item
 - i. Title: My Contacts
 - f. Save: Command + S
- 9) Add UITableViewController and Bind to TableView
 - a. Right-Click on ProjectName
 - b. Select New File
 - c. iOS Source > Cocoa Touch Class > Next
 - d. SubClass: UITableViewController, Class: ContactTableViewController
 - e. Next > Create
 - f. Click on StoryBoard > UITableView
 - g. Select Identity Inspector > Class: > Select ContactTableViewController
- 10) Code for ViewController. See code
- 11) Code for ContactTableViewController. See code

12) Auto Resize Objects

- a. Select StoryBoard
- b. Select Top Part of ViewController and ContactTableViewController
- c. Editor > Resolve AutoLayout Issues > Reset to Suggested Constraints

13) Test

- a. Add: clicking + symbol to add contact
- b. Update: clicking existing table row > Edit > Update
- c. Delete: Swipe left on table row and delete

14) Challenge: Create new icon, launchscreen image and viewController image

- a. See link